Crowsnest Pass Jaycees Receive Charter

A memorable occasion was held at Turtle Mountain Hotel in Frank on Saturday, March 2nd, when 120 persons from all over Southern Alberta and British Columbia gathered to see the newly-formed Crows Nest Pass Jaycees receive their Charter.

After introducing the head table guests, master of ceremonies, Bruce Graham, District No. 1 president of Medicine Hat, also introduced two Jaycee Senators, past president of District No. 1, Lyle Flynn of Medicine Hat, and past president of District No. 1, Dick Haddington of Lethbridge.

Also present at the impressive occasion were Larry Higa, president of Taber Jaycees; Orville Page, president of the Lethbridge Jaycees; Terry Tonge, president of the Beaumont Jaycees of Calgary; President Cliff Steedman of Medicine Hat and Don Cockwell of the Cranbrook, B. C., Jaycees.

In congratulating the Crows Nest Pass Jaycees, Orville Page of Lethbridge, mentioned the fact that it was an honor to the Crows Nest Pass unit to receive their charter less than four months after organization. He attributed this feat to the hard work of the enthusiastic men who are now leading the local unit.

He pointed out that when the first organizational meeting was held that some 60 persons were to have attended and that only 20 showed up, which was very disappointing.

A few men, including Ernie Bjarnasson of Coleman, then went to work and in less than four months have formed a unit that will soon be the second largest unit in District No. 1.

Mr. Page congratulated the local unit and stated that Lethbridge were proud to have been a part in organizing the local unit.

The Lethbridge representatives, about 20 in number, then sang the Jaycees Crows Nest Pass song.

Next speaker was provincial president W. J. A. "Bill" Rowe of Calgary, who extended congratulations and greetings from the provincial unit to the Crows Nest Pass unit.

Mr. Rowe's remarks pointed out the great need for a Jaycee unit in the Crows Nest Pass with one of the main reasons being for young people to take an active interest in their community affairs. The Jaycees, he indicated, is a self-help organization—it is no magic wand—and it is going to bring members more problems than they ever believed existed.

It won't solve problems for you, he said, it will create them—but it will give you a good first-hand look at your community. Too many people today, he said, depend on the government to do things—the Jaycees believe in "do it yourself" and you are the people who will benefit most by the efforts you put forth in your community. The Jaycees, he stated, is a means of doing something and of helping yourselves and in doing this he said, remember—"Work smart, think before you act."

The Jaycees don't build communities, he added,—it builds men and prepares you for work in other organizations. He compared the newly formed Crows Nest Pass unit with a new-born baby stating now that it was born life would begin and have all its ups and downs which indicated a healthy growth.

He suggested that one of the first things the local Crows Nest Pass Jaycees should strive for is to foster the idea of Crows Nest Pass thinking and not individual community thinking.

Mr. Rowe then called on the president of the Crows Nest Pass Jaycees, Ray Latimer, and presented him with the unit charter.

Accepting the charter, President Latimer expressed his appreciation for the charter, stating that he was very proud to be the first president of the newly-formed unit. He added he would do everything possible to be worthy of the position.

Series of presentations were then made and included a gavel for the new unit, presented by Roy Higa of the Taber Jaycees, an individual Creed to President Latimer from Cliff Steedman of the Medicine Hat Jaycees, who also announced that a ceremonial bell had been ordered for presentation but had not yet arrived.

Jack Dewar, extension chairman of Lethbridge, announced that the pins for the new unit and the unit Creed had been provided by the Lethbridge Jaycees.

Following the presentations the induction ceremonies were held, under the supervision of Bill Rowe the provincial president.

Following the oath taken by President Ray Latimer, the following officers were also inducted in an impressive ceremony:

Vice-president, Ernie Bjarnasson of Coleman; secretary-treasurer, Keith Lewis of Blairmore, and directors, Paul Linderman and Bill Ozar of Bellevue.

Following the induction of the officers, all the members were called upon and sworn in after which the presentation of pins was made. The newly-formed unit now has a strength of 31 paid members.

On completion of the ceremonies a draw for a cooler chest was made and was won by Vera Deoux of Blairmore. An evening of dancing was then enjoyed.

Rampaging Lynx Shot in Willow Drive

A rampaging Canada Lynx tore into and killed an entire flock of over 150 white leghorn chickens owned by Mrs. G. Horn of Willow Drive early on Monday morning.

Mrs. Horn spotted the Lynx when she went to feed the chickens about 8 a.m. and when she opened the door to the coop she got one foot in the door when she spotted all the dead chickens. Not losing her presence of mind she looked around the coop slowly and saw the Lynx fast asleep in a corner. Mrs. Horn eased herself out of the barn and went to the house and got her son Harry who returned to the barn with a 22 calibre rifle and shot the Lynx in the head.

The animal weighed about 40 pounds. A close inspection showed that it had not fed heavily on the chickens but had gone on a rampage killing all of the hens. The Lynx had a large raw spot on its right foreleg where it had been caught in a trap and had worked its paw loose. This could have been the cause of the cats meanness.

The Horn family report not having heard any commotion in the chicken barn which is about 200 feet away from the house. Mrs. Horn reports she heard the cat cry on various occasions.

The Coleman Public Library held its annual meeting March 4th when reports indicated that the library had again been operated in a very successful manner.

Ratepayers' Meeting Well Attended

Over 30 ratepayers attended the Town of Coleman annual meeting, held in the town council chambers.

Following Mayor John Ramsay's report, which showed the town to be operating very successfully, the chairmen of each of the town's departments presented reports covering the work done in each department during the year.

Councillor John Holyk (reviewed) financial statement; Councillor George Jenkins reported the works and property committee report was read by Councillor Ted Kryczka, who also read his health and welfare committee report.

The buildings committee report was presented by Joe Hanrahan, after which the fire and police report given by Bert Bond, was followed by a report on the Sports Association by Ted Kryczka.

The parks, cemetery and rink report was given by Mel Cornett, who also presented the library annual report which showed this public service to be operating in a successful manner.

The report on the Coleman Light and Water Company, given by Mayor John Ramsay, was enlarged upon by Town Secretary T. A. Collister, who also gave a financial report on the town's newly-instituted Gas Company. This latter report showed that the entire system and its installation had cost the town some $153,000, and that all concerned were more than pleased with the system's operation. Mayor Ramsay also gave a detailed report of the progress work being done on the town's new sub-division which also indicated that this project was a success.

A number of questions were brought up by various ratepayers during the evening and satisfactorily answered by each of the chairmen.

The Coleman Public Library held its annual meeting March 4th when reports indicated that the library had again been operated in a very successful manner.

Following the financial statement presented by Mel Cornett, Mrs. Elizabeth Upton, library chairman, gave a complete report on the library function during the year. As at December 31, 1961, the library had a total of 1605 books, purchasing a total of 771 during the year. Fifty books were withdrawn during the year.

The report showed that at December 31, 1962, a total of 2320 books were on the library shelves and that the average circulation was 195 books per week.

The library now has a total membership of 308 persons. The report also showed that the library had enjoyed a very successful year under the personal supervision of Mrs. Upton. Mrs. Mildred Zak and Rev. H. de Leeuw, who, with volunteer workers, from the town, had carried on the weekly work of operating the library.

It was pointed out that the young people of Coleman and district were still the best supporters of the library and through them the adult membership will gradually be increased. An excellent selection of adult and junior books, fiction and non-fiction books, have been added to the library shelves, and a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica has been donated to the library and also a number of other reference books for the convenience of the readers.

The committee has expressed thanks to the school district, the town of Coleman, for their co-operation and financial assistance during the year and thanks was also extended to all volunteer workers who have given of their time and ability on the library's behalf.

Walter Blyth Passes Away

Mr. Walter Blyth, age 75 years passed away in the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital on Friday, March 1st.

Mr. Blyth was born at Lintlithgow, Shropshire, Scotland, coming to Vancouver Island in 1918, and later moved to Coleman in 1924, where he has resided up until his death.

He was a member of the UMWA and worked for the Coleman Collieries Limited from 1924 until he retired in 1950. He will be remembered by the old-timers for his violin playing at the Caledonian Society functions in his early days. Funeral services were held on Monday at 2 p.m. in St. Paul's United Church with the Rev. H. G. deLeeuw officiating. Interment followed in the Union cemetery.

Hall's Funeral Service of Blairmore was in charge of the arrangements.

Pallbearers were Messrs. W. Hoggan, A. Morris, C. Conner, R. Ruzek, W. Krish and Nick Olynik.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Jean; three daughters, Mrs. V. (Mary) Vohradsky, Mrs. N. (Margaret) Fisher, both of Kimberley, B. C., and Mrs. R. (Christine) Deahl, Prince George, B. C., and seven grandchildren. He was predeceased by a son, Walter, Jr., in Coleman, in 1953.

Former Coleman Youth With R.C.A.F. In Egypt

Mr. Terrance Hurd, age 20 years, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hurd is now serving with a Canadian Army Signal Squadron in Egypt with the RCAF on United Nations duty. Terrance experienced an interesting event enroute when the plane which was carrying them to Egypt and the Congo was intercepted high over Spain by two unidentified jet fighters.

The fighters, probably Spanish or American, were clearly seen in the moonlight by passengers on board the four-engine plane.

The Yukon was lit up like a Christmas tree and crew members said all proper identification signals had been transmitted.

The transport landed at Pisa, a UN staging area, without further incident. It left later for Leopoldville in the Congo, while another RCAF plane left for El Arish in Egypt.

Most of the troops were signalers and ordnance personnel.

The flight was proceeding over Spain because RCAF flights with UN troops are barred over France and Portugal. The French have refused to allow Canadian flights in support of the UN since the UN operation began. Portugal is similarly unco-operative because of Canadian Portuguese differences over Angola.

There were 55 passengers on the plane, which flew non-stop from Trenton, Ont.

A number of questions were brought up by various ratepayers during the evening and satisfactorily answered by each of the chairmen.

Ernie Patterson Addresses Public Meeting

Close to 50 persons gathered in the Moose Hall in Hillcrest on Tuesday evening, March 5, to hear Ernie Patterson, Social Credit candidate for the Macleod Riding speak on the forthcoming elections.

Mr. Patterson outlined the reasons why we are having an election on April 8th, indicating that the Conservative government is blaming the election on Social Credit. He said that Social Credit stopped supporting the government when Prime Minister John Diefenbaker said no to four requests the Social Credit party made in a letter to him.

The requests were 1—That the Prime Minister bring down an agenda in the House of Commons so that members would know what was scheduled for next day's sessions; 2—That the government get busy and implement legislation that had been passed years before; 3—Immediately bring down financial estimates for a seven and a half billion dollar budget that was never discussed and 4—That he bring down a budget for the coming year.

In reply to the letter Mr. Diefenbaker is reported to have said that 'I'm the Prime Minister of Canada—nobody suggests or tells me what to do—the answer is NO!'

Mr. Patterson emphasized the fact that Social Credit did not want an election and were prepared to support the present government if a new leader was named and a recent policy adopted. Mr. Patterson then stated that Social Credit policy was to bring in a stable government to deal with the affairs of Canada and secondly to look into immediately, and do all possible to improve the present Canadian economic situation. Mr. Patterson then commented on the present Canadian tax dollar, stating that 15c of every dollar is used to pay interest on the national debt and this 15c on the tax dollar represents a total sum of $700 million a year, 15c of the tax dollar is used for welfare or on old age pensions, hospital schemes, etc., and then 22c of the tax dollar is used for national defence.

He stated that big financiers are getting the benefit of this tax dollar and then went on to point out that Social Credit was against high interest rates being charged. He rapped IAC for the high interest rates they were charging, pointing out that The Canada Council had been given the sum of $100 million of our tax money and the Canada Council lent IAC a large sum of money at a rate of interest of 3½ per cent, and then IAC lends out this money to taxpayers who own the money, at a rate of 32 per cent. He also mentioned that Louis St. Laurent was a director of IAC.

In concluding his address Mr. Patterson stated "I want to win this election legally. I won't buy votes and I want people to vote for Social Credit as Social Credit is the answer to Canada's problems." He then announced that a meeting would be held in the Elks hall in Coleman on March 11.

Mayor of Fort Macleod, George Buzinis, campaign manager for Mr. Patterson, also gave an interesting address indicating that it seems that Canada can only function economically when there is a war and that the governments that have headed Canada cannot seem to organize work such as building roads, factories, developing industry to improve the economy of Canada.

He rapped the Liberal and Conservative governments, crediting them with giving Canadians the highest per capita debt, a terrifically large national debt and a steady increasing surge of unemployment.

He stated that the Conservatives, who have been in power for some time with a large majority of seats could not untangle the mess that the Liberal government had created in 22 years and even with 240 seats they said the Conservatives' opposition stopped and interfered with legislation.

Mr. Buzinis then spoke on the fact that Estevan Homes, a new industry in Fort Macleod, had not been given a chance to bid on the two and a half million dollar project of building trailers for the Cold Lake district. Mr. Buzinis said he phoned the Prime Minister about this, advising him that bids were to close in six days, which would not give the Macleod company a chance to bid. Mr. Diefenbaker is reported to have advised that the Minister of Hurley would be contacted and later advised that the minister would do nothing about the closing date of bids.

Mr. Buzinis stated he then phoned Social Credit Leader Robert Thompson, who went to work on the matter and on Monday noon after he had been contacted Friday evening he advised that he had contacted the minister and that the date for entering bids for the job had been extended for one month and that plans of the jobs were being forwarded via air mail. Mr. Buzinis then rapped Law-ence Kindt, MP, for taking credit for bringing industry to Fort Macleod. Mr. Buzinis advised that he and Councillor Boyle had travelled to Ottawa and out of courtesy invited Mr. Kindt to accompany them to see the proper authorities. He said we did all the work and talking and Mr. Kindt says 'I brought industry to Macleod'. He also accused Mr. Kindt of taking credit for many other things that other persons have worked hard to accomplish.

Concluding his remarks, Mr. Buzinis stated that Social Credit has operated very successfully on the provincial scale in Alberta, and there was no reason why it would not function as ably on the Federal level.

Chairman of the meeting was Joe Hanrahan of Coleman, who, in introducing both speakers, gave a resume' of their lives.

A silver collection was taken by Cliff Letcher of Hillcrest, who, with Mr. Hanrahan, are conducting the Social Credit campaign in the Crows Nest Pass - Pincher Creek area.

Mr. and Mrs. Tymosiw came to Coleman from Leeds, England, six and a half years ago, and have resided here since. During their stay, Mr. Tymosiw was employed as a miner at the Crows Nest Pass Coal Company mine at Michel, B. C.

On one occasion some 30 friends called in at a surprise party during which event the couple were presented with a travelling trunk presented by Mrs. Betty Szymanek on behalf of all present, and also with a painting of Crows Nest Mountain by Harry Pownall, a local artist.

Another surprise affair was enjoyed at their home when members of the Holy Name Society Choir called in at a surprise party and presented the couple with a huge box of chocolates and also presented Mrs. Tymosiw with a crystal necklace set.

Les Owen made the presentation on behalf of the Choir. Several other farewell parties were also held and a social hour enjoyed at each event.

Do you know that you pay almost 16c out of every tax dollar just to pay the interest on the National Debt? This amounts to 700 millions of dollars a year and is more than the Federal Government spends on welfare. "Snow White" Feature Ice Show

All of the Crows Nest Pass towns are eagerly looking forward to seeing the Snow White production that will be featured at a winter carnival affair to be held in the Blairmore arena on March 30th.

The Ice Revue to feature some 65 young figure skaters from all of the Crows Nest Pass towns, have been coached and taught by Mrs. Geraldine Turbis of Bellevue, who is a well known Alberta figure skater.

Mrs. Turbis has spent hours of time putting the show together and for the Snow White feature, colorful costumes are being arranged for.

The Crows Nest Pass Band will also attend and provide some music for the affair.

A number of local service clubs and groups are also assisting with the affair to help Mrs. Turbis present what is to be the first runner of an annual figure skating show featuring all Crows Nest Pass talent.

According to reports some of the young people are loaded with talent and development of these abilities could tend to provide the Pass with a skating group that could later serve to entertain many Southern Alberta communities.

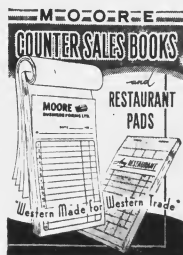

Plans for an advance sale of tickets is also being discussed as it is expected that a packed arena will be on hand to support our young Crows Nest Pass figure skaters.

Dr. Bostrom Addresses Meeting

A large audience of some 200 persons gathered in the Miners' Hall on Saturday evening of March 16 to meet Robert Bostrom, Liberal candidate for the Macleod Constituency, and to see the Wild Life pictures of famed naturalist, Andy Russell, of Waterton Park.

Dr. Bostrom is a young geologist living in Midnapore, Alberta. He was born in Scotland and served in the Royal Air Force in World War II, and was discharged with the rank of squadron leader. He then continued his education and obtained his Ph.D. degree, majoring in geology, and came to Canada in 1951. The disintegration of the last Canadian government caused him concern over the future of Canada, which fact drew him into politics.

In his address he set out three principles. —1, Canada's present wealth is built on the export of her raw materials and with modern machinery fewer men are being employed to produce these raw materials. Canada's future must be in more manufacturing and national development corporation would be established to sponsor new industry which would be encouraged by tax concessions and other advantages until established.

Secondly, he said many nations of the world are poor and are getting wealthier and can buy our exports. Successful international relations would capture markets and there is need for a good neighbor policy.

Thirdly, he said a strong effective government in Ottawa is required to bring about these results. The people must not be misled into believing that the good times could be brought about by printing more money as advocated by the Social Credit party, particularly the Caute branch in Quebec. The Diefenbaker government has spent more money in plunging Canada deeper into debt than any other government since Confederation.

As to local conditions, Dr. Bostrom promised a serious study of possible uses of coal to produce electricity. A subvention on a five year basis of about $3.50 per ton would be required.

There is a market in Bonnyville, U.S.A., for such power. He also felt the Southern Trans-Canada route should go through the Crows Nest Pass, thus bringing in more tourist business. To advance education and keep children in school he felt family allowances should be extended and every child should have the opportunity of attending university.

Following his talk a lengthy question period was held.

Andy Russell, speaking for Dr. Bostrom, said he was in politics for the first time, and was supporting the Liberal candidate because he was impressed with his abilities and that he would be a good man "to ride the river with".

He expressed concern over the industrialization in National Parks and urged that everyone write to his member of parliament and protest against the mining, oil and timber interests that are getting into the parks and destroying them.

Mr. Russell then showed two movie films — one taken in Alaska and the Yukon, showing the animals and park grizzly bears. The second was taken in and around Waterton Park depicting scenery and wild life in the region. The animal pictures were breath-taking, featuring many close-ups of grizzly, sheep, goat and deer, as close as three feet away.

Chairman of the meeting was T. J. Costigan of Blairmore, who urged all present to support Dr. Bostrom in the election. He stated it seemed likely that the Liberal party would form the next government and the people of the Pass should have a member sitting on the government side and not uselessly in the opposition.

New Highway Sign IS Set Up

A very attractive highway sign has been set up on the south side of the No. 3 highway west of Coleman, by the Department of Highway crews who have also built a well-gravelled viewpoint at the site of the sign.

Reading the sign, tourists and visitors will be able to overlook and view beautiful Star Creek Valley to the south of the highway where the volcanic rocks described in the highway sign can be seen.

The new viewpoint's location — which is a credit to the Highway Department — gives visitors an excellent view of the area, for looking east one can see famed Turtle Mountain from which the Frank Slide tumbled; looking north well known Crows Nest Mountain, and just west of this mountain one can see Window Mountain and Mount Tecumseh.

Long, straight approaches on both sides of the highway's historical sign should also prevent any highway mishaps from occurring.

Walsh Rink of Natal Take Top Prize In Shamrock Spiel

Coleman Curling Club wound up another very successful season over the weekend of March 16, 17, with the annual Shamrock Bowl Spiel. There were 36 rinks taking part in the two-day affair, competing for over $400 in prizes.

Draw-master for the three-evening affair was A. L. Collister.

Winners of the first event was the Walsh rink of Natal, B.C.; the Camilli rink of Natal, B.C.; the Woods rink of Coleman, and the Chrystal rink of Blairmore.

Second event winners were the C.P.R. rink of Coleman, the Howie Gilbert rink of Blairmore, the Favero rink of Bellevue and the T. Kryczka rink of Coleman.

Third event winners were the Shorty Jenkins rink of Coleman, the T. A. Collicker rink of Coleman, the Jim Ewing rink of Calgary and the Salvador rink of Creston, B.C.

Shamrock Draw Winners

The lucky winners of the Shamrock Draw held by the Coleman Curling Club were:

1st, Mr. A. G. Bowes of 1425 East 29th St., North Vancouver, B.C., 2nd, Mr. Roy Upton, Coleman.

CASE FOR LIGHTING

Move Underway For Sr. Citizens' Home

A second move is underway in the Crows Nest Pass this week in an effort to promote the construction of a Senior Citizens' Home in the Crows Nest Pass to serve the people of this area.

This second movement was brought to light at the Hillcrest Old Age Pensioners' meeting, held in Hillcrest last week when it was disclosed that Phillip McNeil, sr., of Hillcrest, is circulating a petition in the Pass to have persons over 70 years of age sign the document. So far the petition bears the names of some 70 old-timers, and it is expected that this figure will soar to an astounding number when the petition is completed. The great need for a Senior Citizens' Home in the Pass was discussed at the meeting and it was felt that such a home would be filled to capacity immediately.

Blairmore ratepayers at the annual meeting, heard Mayor Jallop, who is on the Board of Directors of the Crestview Lodge at Pincher, express the dire need of such a home in the Pass.

He pointed out that there was a waiting list at the Crestview Lodge and that many of the people in the Lodge were from this area. He also stated that many local people would be glad to go into such a home if one were established in the area.

Home and School Hear Talk On Firearms

The Coleman Home and School Association held its regular meeting Monday evening, March 18th, attended by some 20 parents and a large number of interested teenagers.

Highlight of the evening was an informative talk given by Bernie Simpson, assistant superintendent of the Blairmore Forestry offices, and Constable Goldberg of Blairmore detachment of the RCMP, who both spoke on the "use and abuse of firearms". The informative address was well received by the parents and students.

During the Home and School regular business meeting it was decided that the Association this year would purchase graduating pins for the graduating class instead of holding the usual annual tea for the students and their parents.

The Home and School will also look into the possibility of promoting a dental clinic for young people of the Coleman school.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. H. Allen's grade three, and Mrs. E. Malanuk's grade seven class.

The meeting concluded after coffee and cakes were served.

Swimming Pool Vote Wed., April 10

Coleman Town Council met Tuesday evening when the matter of Coleman Proper and surrounding Improvement District pooling their provincial recreation grants to build a swimming pool to serve the people of the area was brought up.

It was reported that the cost of the pool would be in the neighborhood of some $43,000.00, and as a result of this proprietary electors in Coleman will go to the polls on April 10th to vote in favor of or against Coleman issuing debentures to the amount of $12,000.00 to raise the necessary balance for the construction of the pool. The vote will be held in the council chamber from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The budget for the year was studied and finalized and it appears that it will not be necessary to increase the mill rate this year.

The water analysis report was read and showed a negative count.

The Civil Defence orientation extension school that was conducted in the Coleman main school during the past week wound up on Friday evening and reports indicate the affair was very successful.

The lectures at the course were given by Gordon Davidson of Edmonton, who represented the Alberta Emergency Measures Organization. The course, held for five evenings, lasted for three hours each night, and an average attendance of 18 persons was in each class.

Councillor Bert Bond was appointed by the Coleman Council as the local director of Civil Defence and he was in charge of registration for the classes.

Special Meet To Discuss Hepatitis

A special meeting of the Town Council, School Board and Chinook Health authorities was held on March 20th to discuss the occurrence of 21 cases of Infectious Hepatitis since March 8th.

It appears the source of the infection may have originated in the school. Precautions have been taken to prevent a further spread of this disease.

A testing of urine samples of all school children will be undertaken. The Department of Public Health has been notified of this situation.

Benefit Bingo Cancelled

Fire Chief Henry Zak of Coleman, has announced this week that the benefit bingo that had been planned to raise money for the Judy Gibos Fund, has been cancelled due to a donation made by the Purple Cross Fund.

Mr. Zak has expressed thanks to the Blairmore Elks who had volunteered the Blairmore Elks' hall for the affair, the Coleman Elks, who were to assist with and provide cards and a donation for the affair, to Dickinson Bus Lines who were to have provided a bus for transportation and to bus driver Millar Fleming.

Word was received by The Journal on Thursday, March 14 that Garfield Jones, a former resident of Coleman, had passed away in Weston-Super-Mare, England, on Tuesday, March 13th. Interment and service was conducted Monday, March 19 in Weston, England.

Mr. Jones, 82 years of age, was born in Wales in September, 1881. He came to Canada, settling in Coleman in 1922 and worked in the McGillivray Mine of Coleman Collieries for three years, before returning to England to reside.

HUNDRED APPLIANCES

Lions Governor Visits Pass

Over sixty Lions, their wives and guests from the Coleman and Blairmore Lions Clubs enjoyed a joint supper meeting at the Turtle Mountain Hotel in Frank recently when District 37D Governor Ray Meyers of Kalispell, Montana, paid his official visit to the local clubs.

Chairman for the enjoyable affair was Zone Chairman Eric Price of Blairmore.

Following the introductions of the Coleman, Blairmore, Pincher Creek and Big Fork, Montana, Lions who were present at the meeting, District Governor Meyers gave a very interesting talk on Lionsism.

In his introductory remarks he introduced charter members of the 23-year-old Coleman Lions, Stu Murdoch and International Counsellor Jack Kerr of Frank, who is a charter member of the 19-year-old Blairmore club.

Governor Meyers then went on to talk of the work that the Lions Clubs are doing all over the world and the important part they are playing in joining together men in all parts of the world.

Mr. Meyers was introduced to the meeting by Bos Zeteman, Deputy District Governor of Pincher Creek.

Following his address he called on Past District Governor John Kerr of the Blairmore Lions Club and presented him with a very hard-to-earn pin—the coveted 100 per cent District Governors Award. In turn Lion Kerr on behalf of the Blairmore and Coleman Lions Clubs presented him with a framed photo of Crows Nest Mountain, for which Mr. Meyers also expressed his appreciation.

Governor Meyers then showed over 200 color slides on his trip last year to the Lions International convention held in Nice, France. These were much enjoyed by all present.

THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS~ FREE ENTERPRISE ELECTRICITY!

It seems hard to believe that anyone would want to undermine the free enterprise spirit that built Alberta. Yet there is a small minority who wish to turn our vital electric utilities into a government monopoly.

It is claimed that they are monopolies of necessity — and might as well be government monopolies. Nothing could be more misleading.

Right now Alberta has the best of two worlds — free enterprise initiative plus judicious control by the present government. The operators of investor-owned utilities are closely scrutinized by government bodies, who regulate such matters as consumer rates and overall planning. Uncontrolled power monopolies simply don't exist.

Government-owned power would be such an uncontrolled monopoly. It would be a state-owned power — and the present right of appeal to the Public Utilities Board would be lost. A few people might think this better than the present system of free enterprise initiative with judicious government control. Some might, but not you!

CALGARY POWER LTD.

AN INVESTOR-OWNED TAX-PAYING ELECTRIC UTILITY SERVING ALBERTA

ENTERPRISE:

We must export to live.

Our principal exports are raw materials.

We have up to 8 per cent unemployment.

We should be exporting the products of skilled industry. Cars. Cameras. Specialized Precision machinery. Electrical instruments. These products never become exhausted. Their manufacture, as some countries have shown, can give us employment.

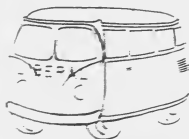

To develop such industries requires government action — a unified purpose, a positive plan, carry out plan, wartime industrial development.

Strong defences are necessary. Canada has never won this. But the war was not only won by economic success, not by weapons. It is a positive plan, money which has been spent to develop the armaments were spent on industrial development. We should already be on the upgrade.

If you realize the possibilities awaiting us in enterprise in a four-year program of industrial development, you should consider being Liberal. Only a government with a majority is in a position to carry out such a program. We promise you stability and hard work — with this, a prosperous Canada.

Prov. Power Grid Not New Idea In Alberta

The comparatively recent stress which has been placed on the need of a grid system of power distribution has overshadowed the fact that power companies began to build the groundwork of such a grid almost 40 years ago. Many Albertans have watched this growth take place and know that their province has progressed steadily towards an efficient, integrated power grid system since 1917.

In the year of interconnection was made between Calgary Power Ltd. and the City of Edmonton, other interconnections with municipally-owned systems were made in 1930 and 1931 with the Cities of Edmonton and Medicine Hat respectively.

There were also made in 1931 and the exchange of electrical energy between the three investor-owned electric utilities in Alberta: Calgary Power Ltd., Canadian Western Limited and Northern Alberta Electric Limited. The first of these was made early in 1930 between Hinton and Vegreville. Others followed — Banff-Herby-Dumont in 1931, Wainwright — Vermilion in 1931, Banff-Herby-Dumont in 1931, and Calgary — 1930 — Winnipeg — Swan Hills in 1931 and Edmonton — Lac La Poudre in 1932.

In addition, Calgary Power Ltd. established its first link beyond the boundaries of Alberta in 1930. At that time an interprovincial agreement was made which provided interconnection with East Canadian Power Company at Sarnia in the Great West Plain.

Alberta's power grid, as it exists today, provides for interchange of electrical energy through out the province between all major sources of generation. It also makes a monopoly power available to the various systems which can be called upon within minutes in times of emergency.

Engineers of the various power companies and systems of Alberta considered the need for a provincial grid and turned early plans into positive fact. Their foresight prevented the untimely development of costly projects at the same time enabling the province to enjoy a continuing and adequate supply of electricity when and where it faced the growing needs of its urban and industrial population.

Comments re NORAD Visit by CWNA Board Members

If Canadian voters knew the true facts on NORAD there would be no doubt in their minds how they should vote on April 1st. They would vote for the party with a clear cut policy in defence. It seems impossible to form any other conclusion. This being the case what are the facts?

The day at NORAD Headquarters will provide the facts for any interested group. They will find that in more than 170 Canadian visits NORAD has paid and that any few members of Parliament or Ministers were limiting talk to what was required to form any other conclusion. This being the case what are the facts?

It would be found that NORAD is for defence only. It is not for other functions nor could it be used in any other way. Warheads for the armaments of Canada now in the box can be used for any other purpose than as anti-aircraft. It is not worth destroyed by a nuclear warhead could be non-effective while destroyed by conventional warheads it would explode in a predetermined manner.

Letter to the Editor

February 11th 1961
Mr. T. Houshead,
Publisher,
Coleman Journal,
COLEMAN, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Houshead,
We are pleased to report to you the successful conclusion of the Christmas Seal Sale. Final returns for the province have not yet been compiled, but the total will approximate $244,000 which is very close to the all-time record established last year. It affords us particular satisfaction to know that there are almost 110,000 individual contributors. This generous support of the public at large indicates confidence in our sponsoring committees and we hope we are justified in the belief that it represents endorsement of the methods employed in our efforts to control the spread of tuberculosis and to bring to medical attention the many other chest abnormalities found in our surveys and clinics.

Adequately financed for another year we shall continue our health finding procedures with every resource at our command keeping in mind the constant search for means of improving our methods.

In behalf of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association, I am pleased to express thanks to those who supported us by purchasing Christmas Seals. We will also be putting acknowledgments out soon, copies to the Minister of Health, copies to the Minister of the Sea and in your area. We feel that the support received from the Coleman Journal was of material assistance in the success of the campaign.

Yours sincerely,
G. H. Rowland,
President,
Alberta Tuberculosis Association.

BIG INDUSTRY

Canada's electrical manufacturing industry employed approximately 61,000 Canadians in 1952 and paid an annual wage of more than $10 million dollars.

VOTE Social Credit

ERNE PATTERSON

- Basic Income Tax Exemption will be raised to $1500 per single person and to $3000 for a married man.
- Home owners will be allowed to deduct depreciation on their home for Income Tax purposes.
- Lower rates of interest for business loans, farm loans, and for National Housing Loans.
- A contributory portable pension plan will be established and administered by the Federal Government. Each individual would contribute a small fee each month from their wages or income. The accumulated fund would provide a reasonable pension to supplement the old age pension. A person would not lose their contributions when transferring from one job to another. This, of course would solve the problem of older workers, who now are not hired because they would not be able to contribute enough money to the company pension plan. Most important of all, everyone would have sufficient income to live comfortably after retirement.
